

Fixed-term on-call contract

The signatories:

1. The private company with limited liability[name]....., having its registered office at[address]....., represented in this matter by Mr/Mrs/Ms[name]....., hereinafter referred to as "the employer";

or

.....
.....

or

The commercial partnership[name]....., having its registered office at[address]....., represented in this matter by its partners, Mr/Mrs/Ms[name]..... and Mr/Mrs/Ms[name]....., hereinafter referred to as "the employer";

and 2.

.....

Jointly referred to as: 'the parties,

Taking into account that:

.....
.....
.....

Agree as follows:

1. Commencement of employment

- 1.1 The on-call worker commits to the employer's company in the position of[job title]....., in the broadest sense. The on-call worker undertakes to perform all tasks that may reasonably be required in the exercise of the position following a call and is therefore obliged to respond to a legally valid call. The on-call worker may only refuse a call if he/she is reasonably unable to work at the times specified by the employer.

.....
.....
.....

- 1.3 During a workday of[number]..... hours, the on-call worker is entitled to a break of[number]..... minutes. The break is not considered part of the working hours, and therefore, there is no entitlement to continued payment of wages during the break.